THANKSGIVING LESSON - Read: Elder Steven E. Snow's October 2001 Conference Talk on GRATITUDE.

Hole-in-the-Rock (Utah)
In 1879, 237 LDS were asked to blaze a new route to San Juan County.
Here they lowered wagons and teams to cross the Colorado River.

Imagine a wagon doing this!

Comb Ridge (Utah)
Early in April 1880, they faced their final obstacle; a ridge of solid sandstone forming a 1,000 foot steep wall.
After 6 months of adversity, they left this inscription on the ridge wall: "We thank Thee, O God."
